

QUIZ SOCIAL INFLUENCE - 50 Questions P1

1	Define conformity
2	Briefly describe the method in Asch's study of conformity
3	Briefly describe the results in Asch's study of conformity
4	Briefly describe the conclusion in Asch's study of conformity
5	What happened in the group size variation of Asch's original study?
6	What happened in the anonymity variation of Asch's original study?
7	What happened in the task difficulty variation of Asch's original study?
8	Outline a methodological issue of Asch's study
9	What is temporal validity and why does Asch's study suffer from it?
10	Why may Asch's study not apply to most examples of conformity?
11	What is meant by dispositional factors?
12	What aspect of personality has been identified as being linked to conformity?
13	Criticise the explanation you have given
14	How could expertise explain conformity?
15	How does Asch's study support dispositional explanations of conformity?
16	What did Perrin and Spencer find?
17	Briefly outline Milgram's Agency theory
18	What did Milgram find in his study of obedience
19	What is agency?
20	Define the agentic state and the autonomous state
21	How does authority influence obedience?
22	How does culture influence obedience?
23	How does proximity influence obedience?
24	What evidence supports Milgram's theory
25	How does mailgrams own research undermine his conclusions?

QUIZ SOCIAL INFLUENCE - 50 Questions P1

26	Who suggested a dispositional theory of obedience and what is it called?
27	What was he influenced by and what did the researcher think extreme obedience is like?
28	What was thought to cause this disposition?
29	How was this trait measured? What exactly did it measure?
30	What research supported the dispositional explanation?
31	What can't the dispositional explanation explain about obedience?
32	Define bystander behaviour
33	How is the presence of others thought to influence bystander behaviour.
34	How is the cost of helping thought to influence bystander behaviour.
35	What criticism is there of using social factors to explain bystander behaviour?
36	How is similarity to victim thought to influence bystander behaviour?
37	How is the expertise thought to influence bystander behaviour?
38	What criticism is there of using dispositional factors to explain bystander behaviour?
39	What was the method of Milgram's study?
40	What were the results of Milgram's study?
41	How could the method of Milgram's study be criticised?
42	Define prosocial behaviour in crowds.
43	Define antisocial behaviour in crowds.
44	Define deindividuation
45	Define social loafing
46	Define culture as applied to collective behaviour
47	How can understanding collective behaviour as due to social factors be applied practically?
48	Define personality as applied to collective behaviour
49	Define morality as applied to collective behaviour
50	How can understanding collective behaviour as due to social factors be evaluated?

